The Preface.

WE are taught by many and sundry examples of holy Scriptures, that upon occasion of particular Punishments, Afflictions, and Perils, which God of his most just judgement hath sometimes sent amongst his people, to shew his anger against sin, and to call them to repentance, and to the amendment of their lives, all men ought to be provoked, and stirred up to more fervency, and diligence in Prayer and Fasting, and Almes-deeds, to a more deep consideration of their Consciences, to ponder their unthankfulnesse, and forgetfulnesse of Gods mercifull benefits towards them, with craving of pardon for the time past, and to ask his assistance for the time to come to live more godly, and so to be defended and delivered from all further perils and dangers.

2 Sam 24.14. 2 Chro.20.5. 2 Kings 19.1. Jonah 3. Esth:r 14.13. Dan.9.4.

This was done by the vertuous Kings, David, Iosaphat, and Ezekias, in their distresses of Pestilence, War, & forraign Invasions. So did the King and people of Nineve, and Hester fall to humble Prayers in like perils of their people. So did Daniel in his Captivity, & many other moe in their severall troubles and afflictions. Now therefore calling to minde that God hath been provoked by us to threaten, and begin to visit us at this present both with the Plague, and other grievous Judgements; It hath been thought meet to excite and stir up all godly people within this Realm, to pray earnestly and heartily to God to forgive us our sins, and consequently to turn away his deserved wrath from us, and to restore us to his gracious favour, and to our bodily health. And although it is every Christian mans duty, of his own devotion to pray at all times; yet for that the corrupt nature of man is so slothfull and negligent herein, he hath need by often and sundry means to be stirred up, and put in minde of his duty, according as is now commanded by His most Pious and Sacred Majestie.

THE ORDER FOR Morning Prayer.

Let the Minister beginning Service, read with a loud voice one of these sentences of Scripture.

CORrect us, O Lord, and yet in thy judgement, not in thy fury, lest we should be consumed, and brought to nothing. Jerem. 10.

Dearly

DEarly beloved brethren, the scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednesse, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almightie God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgivenesse of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A generall confession to be said of the whole congregation after the minister, kneeling.

ALmighty and most mercifull Father, We have erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have have offended against thy holy lawes, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done. And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankinde in Christ Jesu our Lord: And grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sins to be pronounced by the Priest alone.

ALmightie God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickednesse and live, and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them which truely repent, and unfainedly beleeve his holy Gospel; Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a loud voyce.

OUr Father which art in heaven. Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespasse against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glorie, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest.

O God make speed to save us.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to help us.

Priest.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.

¶ The Psalmes appointed, are the 6. 32. 38. 39 51. 90. 91. 102. 130 143. whereof the five first are to be read at Morning, and the five last at Evening prayer.

Domine, ne in furore. Psal. 6.

O Lord rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore troubled: but Lord, how long wilt thou punish me?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groaning, every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voyce of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Beati quorum. Psal. 32.

BLessed is he whose unrighteousnesse is forgiven: and whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my dayly complaining.

4 For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto thee: and mine unrighteousnesse have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confesse my sins unto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickednesse of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding: whose mouths must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercie embraceth him on every side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoyce in the Lord: and be joyfull, all ye that are true of heart.

Domine, ne in furore. Psal. 38.

PUt me not to rebuke (O Lord) in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heavie displeasure.

2 For thine arrowes stick fast in me: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head: and are like a sore burden too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery: that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire: and my groning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of my eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers and my neighbours did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood afarre off.

12 They also that sought after my life laide snares for me: and they that went about to doe me euill, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deafe man and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doth not open his mouth.

14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofes.

15 For in thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen mine enemies) should not triumph ouer me: for when my foot slipt, they reioyced greatly against me.

17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heauinesse is euer in my sight.

18 For I will confesse my wickednesse: and be sorrie for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies liue, and are mightie: and they that hate mee wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward euill for good, are against mee: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lord God of my saluation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psal. 39.

I Said I will take heed to my wayes: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, euen from good words, but it was paine and griefe to me.

4 My heart was hote within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified how long I haue to liue.

6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euen as nothing in respect of thee, and verily euery man liuing is altogether vanitie.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadow, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: hee heapeth vp riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now, Lord, what is my hope: truely my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer me from all mine offences: and make make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from mee: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes doest chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beauty to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therefore is but vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lord, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my teares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and bee no more seene.

Miserere mei, Deus. Psal. 51.

HAue mercy vpon me, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies, doe away mine offences.

2 Wash me throughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

3 For I acknowledge my faults: and my sinne is euer before me.

4 Against thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest bee iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceiued me.

are gone: Wee bring our yeeres to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and ten, and though men bee so strong that they come to fourescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But Who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach us to number our daies: that wee may apply our hearts unto Wisedome.

13 Turne thee againe, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.

14 O satisfie us with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall wee reioyce and bee glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort us againe, now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the yeeres wherein we have suffered adversity.

16 Shew thy servants thy worke: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the worke of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handie worke.

Qui habitat. Psal. 91.

WHo so dwelleth under the defence of the most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For hee shall deliver thee from the snare of the Hunter, and from the noysome pestilence.

4 Hee shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulnesse and truth shalbe thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not bee afraide for any terrour by night: nor for the arrow that flyeth by day.

6 For the Pestilence that walketh in darknesse: nor for the sicknesse that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and tenne thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the ungodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no evill happen unto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shal beare thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt goe upon the Lion and Adder: the yong Lion and the Dragon shalt thou tread under thy feete.

14 Because hee hath set his love upon mee, therefore shall I deliver him: I shall set him up, because because hee hath knowen my Name.

15 Hee shall call vpon mee, and I will heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him, and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfie him: and shew him my saluation.

Domine, exaudi. Psal. 102.

HEare my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I call, O heare me and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoake: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

4 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eate my bread.

5 For the voice of my groning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pelicane in the wildernesse: and like an Owle that is in the desert.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone vpon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reuile me all the day long: and they that are mad vpon me, are sworne together against me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My

11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? thy seruants thinke vpon her stones: & it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The Heathen shall feare thy Name, O Lord: and all the Kings of the earth thy Maiestie.

16 When the Lord shall build vp Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When hee turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: & despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be borne shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his Sanctuary: out of the heauen did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That he might heare the mournings of such as be in captiuity: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lord.

23 He brought downe my strength in my iourney: and shortned my dayes.

24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy yeeres they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the worke of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shalbe changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

28 The children of thy servants shall continue: and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

De profundis. Psal. 130.

OUt of the deepe have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord heare my voice.

2 Oh let thine eares consider well: the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou Lord wilt bee extreame to marke what is done amisse: O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

5 I looke for the Lord, my soule doth waite for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shal redeem Israel: from all his sins.

Domine,

Domine, exaudi. Psal. 143.

HEare my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not into judgement with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul, he hath smitten my life downe to the ground: he hath laid me in the darknesse, as the men that have bin long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet doe I remember the time past, I muse upon all thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soule gaspeth unto thee, as a thirsty land.

7 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

8 O let me hear thy loving kindnes betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walke in, for I lift up my soule unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Names sake: and for thy righteousnesse sake, bring my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vexe my soule, for I am thy seruant.

Thou art the euerlasting Sonne: of the Father.

When thou tookest vpon thee to deliuer man: thou diddest not abhorre the Virgins wombe.

When thou haddest ouercome the sharpnesse of death: thou diddest open the kingdome of heauen to all beleeuers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We beleeue that thou shalt come: to bee our Iudge.

We therefore pray thee helpe thy seruants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory euerlasting.

O Lord saue thy people: and blesse thine heritage.

Gouerne them: and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day: we magnifie thee.

And we worship thy Name: euer world without end.

Vouchsafe (O Lord:) to keepe vs this day without sinne.

O Lord haue mercy vpon vs: haue mercy vpon vs.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten vpon vs: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord in thee haue I trusted: let me neuer be confounded.

¶ For the second Lesson, reade one of these Chapters, S. Math. 6. or 8. or 9. S. Luke 13.

BLessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets: which have beene since the world began.

That wee should be saved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us.

To performe the mercie promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy Covenant.

To performe the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us.

That wee being delivered out of the hands of our enemies: might serve him without feare.

In holinesse and righteousnesse before him: all the dayes of our life.

And thou Childe shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes.

To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

To give light to them that sit in darkneſſe, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall bee: world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said the Creede by the Minister, and the people, standing.

I Beleeve in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth: and in Jesus Christ his onely Son our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the virgin Mary, suffered under Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, hee descended into hell, the third day hee rose againe from the dead, hee ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence shall hee come to judge the quicke and the dead. I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveneſſe of sinnes, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And

¶ And after that, these prayers following, as well at Euening prayer, as at Morning prayer, all deuoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let vs pray.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs.

¶ Then the Minister, Clerkes and people, shall say the Lords prayer in English with a loud voyce.

OUr Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our daily bread. And forgiue vs our trespasses, as wee forgiue them that trespasse against vs. And lead vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill. For thine is the kingdome, the power, and the glory, for euer and euer. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest standing vp, shall say,

O Lord shew thy mercy vpon vs.

Answer.

And grant vs thy saluation.

Priest.

O Lord saue the King.

¶ The first Collect.

Most mercifull and gracious Lord, we wretched and miserable sinners humbly beseech thee in mercy and compassion to behold our great afflictions: for thy wrath is gone out, and thine indignation is kindled against us. We confesse, O Lord, that thy judgements are just, for we have multiplied our transgressions like the sand of the sea, and the cry of them hath been so great, that it hath pierced the heavens, and called for vengeance against us: But we beseech thee, O Lord, forget not thou to be gracious, and shut not up thy loving kindness in displeasure; turn thee again, and be mercifull unto thy servants. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name; O deliver us, and be mercifull unto our sins for thy Names sake: Take thy Plague, and all other Judgements from us, that we be not consumed by the means of thy heavy hand upon our sins. O satisfie us with thy mercy, and that soon; so shall we that be thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, give thee thanks for ever, and will alwayes be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation. Grant this, O mercifull Father, we beseech thee, for Jesus Christ his sake our onely Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ The second Collect for Peace.

O God which art author of Peace, and lover of Concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternall life, whose service is perfect freedom, defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord deal not with us after our sins

Answer.

Neither reward us after our iniquities.

℣ Let us pray.

O God mercifull Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowfull, mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppresse us: and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodnesse they may be dispersed, that we thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Names sake.

O God we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didest in their dayes, and in the old time before them.

O Lord arise, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.
Graciously look upon our afflictions.
Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.
Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.
Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.
O Son of David have mercy upon us.
Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.
Graciously hear us, O Christ.
Graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

The Versicle.

O Lord let thy mercy be shewed upon us.

Answer.

As we do put our trust in thee.

¶ Let us pray.

Eternall God, and most gracious Father, we confesse that by our manifold transgressions wee have deserved whatsoever thy Law hath threatned against sinners; Our contempt of thy Divine Service is great, and we hear thy Word, but obey it not,

Our

Our charity to our neighbour is cold, and our disobedience aboundeth. Religion is with many of us, as in too many places besides, made but a pretence for other ends then thy service; and there hath been little or no care among us to keep Truth, and Peace together, for the preserving of both Church, and State. Forgive us, O Lord, forgive us these, and all other our grievous sins. Send us light in our understandings, readines and obedience in our wils, discretion in our words, and actions, true, serious, and loyall indeavours for the peace and prosperitie of our Jerusalem, the Unitie and Glory of this Church, and State, that we may love it, and prosper in it, that we may be guided by thy Grace in this life, and received to thy Glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

GRant we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we which for our evill deeds, and our great unthankfulnesse are worthily punished, by the comfort of thy Grace may mercifully be relieved through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

ALmighty and most mercifull Father, who for our many and grievous sinnes (those especially which we have committed since our last solemn humiliation before thee) might most justly have cut us off, but in the multitude of thy mercies hast hitherto spared us: Accept, we most heartily beseech thee, our unfeigned sorrow for all our former transgressions, and grant that we may never so presume of thy mercy, as to despise the riches of thy goodnesse, but that thy forbearance, and long suffering may lead us to repentance, and amendment of our sinfull lives, to thy honour and glory, and our eternall salvation at the last day through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy Names sake, turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved: and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercie, and evermore serve thee in holinesse and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediatour and Advocate Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Kings Majestie.

O Lord our heavenly Father, High and Mightie, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of princes, which doest from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth, most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to

to behold our most gracious Soveraigne Lord King CHARLES, and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way, endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him, that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicitie, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Queen, Prince CHARLES, and the rest of the Royall progeny.

ALmighty God, the fountain of all goodnesse, we humbly beseech thee to blesse our most gracious Queen Mary, Prince Charles, and the rest of the Royall Progeny: endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heavenly grace, prosper them with all happinesse, and bring them to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ALmighty and everlasting God, which only workest great marvels, send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their charge, the healthfull Spirit of thy grace, and that they may truely please thee, pour upon them the continuall dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer of Chrysostome.

ALmighty God, which hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and doest promise that when two or three be gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2. Corinthians 13.

THe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ The latter Service.

The Priest standing at the North side of the Lords Table, shall say,

OUr Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespasse against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill. For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

ALmightie God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnifie thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Let us pray.

ALmighty God, whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite, have mercy upon the whole Congregation, and so rule the heart of thy chosen servant Charles our King and Governour, that he knowing whose Minister he is, may above all things seek thy honour and glory: and that we his Subjects, duely considering whose authority he hath, may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word and ordinance, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Collect.

ALmighty and everlasting God, which hatest nothing that thou hast made, and doest forgive the sins of all them that be penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchednesse, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgivenesse, through Jesus Christ.

GRant Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietnesse, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle. Joel 2. 12.

TUrn you unto me, with all your hearts, with fasting, weeping, and mourning: rent your hearts, and not your clothes. Turn you unto the Lord your God, for he is gracious and mercifull, long-suffering, and of great compassion, and ready to pardon wickednesse. Then (no doubt) he also shall turn and forgive: and after his chastening, he shall let your encrease remain for meat and drink-offerings unto the Lord your God. Blow out with the trumpet in Sion, proclaim a fasting, call the Congregation, and gather the people together; warn the Congregation, gather the Elders, bring the children and sucklings together. Let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the Priests serve the Lord between the Porch and the Altar, weeping, and saying, Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable unto thy people, let not thine heritage be brought to such confusion, lest the Heathen be Lords thereof. Wherefore should they say among the Heathen, Where is now their God?

The Gospel. Matth. 6. 16.

When ye fast, be not sad, as the hypocrites are: for they disfigure their faces, that it may appear unto men how that they fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, that it appear not unto men how that thou fastest, but unto thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay not up for your selves treasure upon earth, where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where theeves break thorow and steal, but lay up for you treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where theeves do not break thorow nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

I Be=

I Beleeve in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: who for us men, and for our salvation, came downe from heaven, and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, He suffered, and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come againe with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: whose kingdome shall have no end. And I beleeve in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleeve one Catholique and Apostolique Church. I acknowledge one Baptisme for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

After the Nicene Creed shall follow the Sermon, or the Homily of Repentance herewith published.

S^t. Matth. 5.

LEt your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heaven.

Let us pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here on earth.

ALmighty and everliving God, which by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men: We humbly beseech thee most mercifully (to accept our almes and) to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universall Church with the spirit of truth, unity and concord: and grant that all they that doe confesse thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian Kings, Princes and Governours, and specially thy servant CHARLES our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed. And grant unto his whole Councell, and to all that be put in authoritie under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenance of Gods true Religion and vertue. Give grace

If there be no alms given unto the poor, then shall the words (of accepting our alms) be left out unsaid.

grace (O heavenly Father) to all Bishops, Pastours, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments. And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and specially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy word, truely serving thee in holinesse and righteousnesse all the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodnesse (O Lord) to comfort and succour all them which in this transitory life be in trouble sorrow, need, sickenesse, or any other adversitie: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christs sake our onely Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and mercifull Father, which hast compassion of all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, which wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from sin, and be saved: mercifully forgive us our trespasses, receive and comfort us, which be grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins; Spare us therefore, good Lord, Spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed. Enter not into judgement with thy Servants, which be vile earth, and miserable sinners, but so turn thine ire from us, which meekely acknowledge our vilenesse vileneſſe, and truly repent us of our faults; ſo make haſte to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty and everlaſting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities and miſeries, and in all our dangers and neceſſities ſtretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us, through Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

O Lord we beſeech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people, that we which are juſtly puniſhed for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodneſſe, for the glory of thy Name, through Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour, who liveth, &c.

ASiſt us mercifully, O Lord, in theſe our ſupplications and prayers, and diſpoſe the way of thy ſervants toward the attainement of everlaſting ſalvation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortall life, they may ever be defended by thy moſt gracious and ready help, through Chriſt our Lord. Amen.

OAlmighty Lord and everliving God, vouchſafe, we beſeech thee, to direct, ſanctifie, and govern, both our hearts and bodies, in the wayes of thy Lawes, and in the workes of thy Commandments, that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

ALmighty and everlasting God, which art alwayes more ready to hear then we to pray, and art wont to give more then either we desire, or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things, whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving unto us that, which our prayer dare not presume to ask, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALmighty God, which hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name, we beseech thee mercifully to encline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessitie, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THe peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and mindes in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you alwayes. Amen.

THE

THE ORDER FOR Evening Prayer.

CDrect us, O Lord, and yet in thy judgement, not in thy fury, lest we should be consumed, and brought to nothing.

Rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of much mercy, and such a one that is sorry for your afflictions.

DEarely beloved brethren, the scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednesse, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgive-nesse of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God: yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things that be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A generall confession to be said of the whole congregation after the minister, kneeling.

ALmighty and most mercifull Father, We have erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy lawes, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankinde in

Christ

Christ Jesu our Lord; And grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes to be pronounced by the Priest alone.

ALmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickednesse and live, and hath given power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes: he pardoneth and absolveth all them which truely repent, and unfainedly beleeve his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a loud voyce.

OUr Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come.

Thy

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespasse against us. And leade us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill: for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest.

O God make speed to save us.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to helpe us.

Priest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.

Read the Psalmes that were left unread at Morning Prayer.

For the first Lesson, read one of the Chapters appointed, and unread at Morning Prayer.

Then the Magnificat, or the Psalme, O come let us humble our selves, &c. as before in Morning Prayer.

Magnificat.

Magnificat. Luke 1.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowlinesse of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throwout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembring his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham, and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end, Amen.

For

For the second Lesson read one of these Chapters, Rom. 6. or, 1 Cor. 10. beginning at the first verse, and ending with the fifteenth, or, 2 Cor. 9. or, 1 Thes. 4.

GOD be mercifull unto us, and blesse us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be mercifull unto us.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all Nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the Nations rejoyce and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the Nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall blesse us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

The first Collect.

TUrn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned; be favourable. O Lord, be favourable to thy people, which turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying, for thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pitie, Thou spares when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy; Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, for Jesus Christs sake our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

The second Collect.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandements, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may passe our time in rest and quietnesse, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy Names sake, turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved: and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holinesse and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our onely Mediatour and Advocate Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A prayer for the Kings Majestie.

O Lord our heavenly Father, High and Mighty King of kings, Lord of lords, the onely Ruler of princes, which doest from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth, most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Soveraign Lord King Charles, and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way, endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him, that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AN HOMILY of Repentance, And of true Reconciliation unto GOD.

THere is nothing that the holy Ghost doth so much labour in all the scriptures to beat in mens heads, as repentance, amendment of life, and speedy returning unto the Lord God of Hosts. And no marvell why: For we do daily, and hourly by our wickednesse, & stubborn disobedience, horribly fall away from God, thereby purchasing unto our selves (if he should deal with us according to his justice) eternall damnation. So that no doctrine is so necessary in the church of God, as is the doctrine of repentance, and amendment of life. And verily the true preachers of the gospel of the kingdom of heaven, and of the glad and joyfull tidings of salvation, have alwayes in their godly sermons, and preachings unto the people, joyned these two together, I mean mean repentance, and forgiveneſſe of ſins, even as our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt did appoint himſelf, ſaying, So it behoved Chriſt to ſuffer, and to riſe again the third day, and that repentance, and forgiveneſſe of ſins ſhould be preached in his Name among all nations. And therefore the holy apoſtle doth in the acts ſpeak after this manner: I have witneſſed both to the Jews and to the Gentiles, the repentance towards God, and faith towards our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Did not John Baptiſt, Zacharias ſon, begin his miniſterie with the doctrine of repentance, ſaying, Repent, for the kingdom of God is at hand? The like doctrine did our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt preach himſelf, and commanded his apoſtles to preach the ſame.

The doctrine of repentance is most necessary.

I might here alledge very many places out of the prophets, in the which this moſt wholeſome doctrine of repentance is very earneſtly urged, as moſt needfull for all degrees, and orders of men, but one ſhall be ſufficient at this preſent time.

Theſe are the words of Joel the prophet. Therefore alſo now the Lord ſaith, Return unto me with all your heart, with faſting, weeping and mourning, rent your hearts, and not your clothes, and return unto the Lord your God, for he is gracious, and mercifull, ſlow to anger, and of great compaſſion, and ready to pardon wickedneſſe. Whereby it is given us to underſtand, that we have here a perpe- Joel. 2.

perpetuall rule appointed unto us, which ought to be observed, and kept at all times, and that there is none other way whereby the wrath of God may be pacified, and his anger asswaged, that the fiercenesse of his furie, and the plagues of destruction, which by his righteous judgement he had determined to bring upon us, may depart, be removed, and taken away. Where he saith, But now therefore, saith the Lord, return unto me: It is not without great importance, that the prophet speaketh so. For he had afore set forth at large unto them, the horrible vengeance of God, which no man was able to abide, and therefore he doth move them to repentance, to obtain mercie: as if he should say, I will not have these things to be so taken, as though there were no hope of grace left. For although ye do by your sins deserve to be utterly destroyed, and God by his righteous judgements hath determined to bring no small destruction upon you, yet know that though ye are in a manner on the very edge of the sword, if ye will speedily return unto him, he will most gently, and most mercifully receive you into his favour again. Whereby we are admonished, that repentance is never too late, so that it be true, and earnest. For sith that God in ỹ scriptures will be called our Father, doubtlesse he doth follow the nature, and propertie of gentle, and mercifull fathers which seek nothing so much, as the returning many other feel. All which things ought to serve for our comfort against the temptations of our consciences, whereby the devill goeth about to shake, or rather to overthrow our faith. For every one of us ought to apply the same unto himself, and say, Yet now return unto the Lord: neither let the remembrance of thy former life discourage thee, yea the more wicked that it hath been, the more fervent, and earnest let thy repentance or returning be, and forthwith thou shalt feel the ears of the Lord wide open unto thy prayers. But let us more narrowly look upon the commandment of the Lord touching this matter. Turn unto me (saith he by the holy prophet Joel) with all your hearts, with fasting, weeping, and mourning. Rent your hearts, and not your garments, &c. In which words he comprehendeth all manner of things that can be spoken of repentance, which is a returning again of the whole man unto God, from whom we be fallen away by sin. But that the whole discourse thereof may the better be born away, we shall first consider in order four principall points, that is, from what we must return, to whom we must return, by whom we may be able to convert, and the manner how to turn to God.

From whence we must turn.

First, from whence, or from what things we must return. Truly we must return from those things, whereby we have been withdrawn, pluckt, and led away from God. And these generally are our sins, which, as the prophet Esay doth testifie, do separate God, and us, and hide his face, that he will not hear us. But under the name of sin, not onely those grosse words, and deeds, which by the common judgement of men, are counted to be filthy, and unlawfull, and so consequently abominable sins: but also the filthy lusts, and inward concupiscences of the flesh, which (as S. Paul testifieth) do resist the will, and Spirit of God, and therefore ought earnestly to be bridled, and kept under. We must repent of the false, and erronious opinions that we have had of God, and the wicked superstition that doth breed of the same, the unlawfull worshipping and service of God, and other like. All these things must they forsake, that will truly turn unto the Lord, and repent aright. For such things the wrath of God cometh upon the children of disobedience: no end of punishment ought to be looked for, as long as we continue in such things. Therefore they be here condemned, which will seem to be repentant sinners, and yet will not forsake their idolatry, and superstition. Secondly, we must see unto whom we ought to return. Revertimini usque ad me, saith the Lord: that is, Return as far as unto me. We must then return unto the Lord, yea, we must return unto him alone: For he alone is the truth, and the fountain of all goodnesse: But we must labour that we do return as far as unto him, and that we do never cease or rest till we have apprehended, and taken hold upon him. Ephes 5.

and

Unto whom we ought to return.

But this must be done by faith. For sith that God is a Spirit, he can by no other meanes be apprehended, and taken hold upon. Wherefore, first they doe greatly erre, which doe not turn unto God, but unto the creatures, or unto the inventions of men, or unto their own merits. Secondly, they that doe begin to return unto the Lord, and doe faint in the midway, before they come to the mark that is appointed unto them. Thirdly, because we have of our own selves nothing to present us to God, and doe no lesse flee from him, after our fall, then our first parent Adam did; who when he had sinned, did seek to hide himself from the sight of God, we have need of a Mediatour for to bring, and reconcile us unto him, who for our sinnes is angry with us. The same is Jesus Christ, who being true, and naturall God, equall, and of one substance with the Father, did at the time appointed take upon him our frail nature, in the blessed Virgins womb, and that of her undefiled substance, that so he might be a mediatour between God, and us, and pacifie his wrath. Of him doth the Father himself speak from Heaven, saying, This is my welbeloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased. And he himself in his Gospell doth cry out, and say. I am the way, the truth, and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by me. For he alone did with the sacrifice of his Body, and Bloud, make satisfaction unto the Justice of God for our sinnes. The Apostles doe testifie, that he was exalted, for to give repentance, and remission of sinnes unto Israel. Both which things he himself did command to be preached in his Name. Therefore they are greatly deceived that preach repentance without Christ, and teach the simple, and ignorant, that it consisteth only in the workes of men. They may indeed speak many things of good workes, and of amendment of life, and manners: but without Christ they be all vaine, and unprofitable. They that think that they have done much of themselves towards repentance, are so much more the farther from God, because they doe seek those things in their own workes, and merits, which ought only to be sought in our Saviour Jesus Christ, and in the merits of his death, and passion, and bloudshedding. Fourthly, this holy Prophet Joel doth lively expresse the manner of this our returning or repentance, comprehending all the inward, and outward things that may be here observed. First, he will have us to return unto God with our whole heart, whereby he doth remove, and put away all hypocrisie, lest the same might justly be said unto us, This people draweth neer unto me with their mouth, and worship me with their lips, but their heart is farre off from me. John 15.

The manner of our returning.

Esay 29. Matth. 15.

Secondly, he requireth a sincere, and pure love of godlinesse, and of the true worshipping, and service of God, that is to say, that forsaking all manner of things that are repugnant, and contrary unto Gods will, we doe give our hearts unto him, and the whole strength of our bodies, and soules, according to that which is written in the Law: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy strength. Deut. 6. Here therefore nothing is left unto us, that we may give unto the world, and unto the lusts of the flesh. For sith that the heart is the fountain of all our workes, as many as doe with the whole heart turn unto the Lord, doe live unto him only. Halting on both sides. Neither doe they yet repent truely, that halting on both sides, doe otherwhiles obey God, but by and by doe think, that, laying him aside, it is lawfull for them to serve the world, and the flesh. And because that we are letted by the naturall corruption of our own flesh, and the wicked affections of the same, he doth bid us also to return with fasting: not thereby understanding a superstitious abstinency, and choosing of meates, but a true discipline or taming of the flesh, whereby the nourishments of filthy lusts, and of stubborne contumacy, and pride, may be withdrawn, and pluckt away from it. Whereunto he doth adde weeping, and mourning, which doe contain an outward profession of repentance, which is very needfull, and necessary, that so we may partly set forth the righteousnesse of God, when by such meanes we doe testifie that we deserved punishments at his hands, and partly stop the offence that was openly given unto the weak.

Psal. 25. This did David see, who being not content to have bewept, and bewailed his sinnes privately, would publikely in his Psalmes declare, and set forth the righteousnesse of God, in punishing sinne, and also slay them that might have abused his example to sinne the more boldly. Therefore they are farthest from true Repentance, that will not confesse, and acknowledge their sinnes, nor yet bewaile them, but rather doe most ungodly glory, and rejoyce in them. Now lest any man should think that repentance doth consist in outward weeping, and mourning only, he doth rehearse that wherein the chief of the whole matter doth lye, when he saith, Rent your hearts, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God. For the people of the East part of the world were wont to rent their garments, if any thing happened unto them that seemed intolerable. This thing did hypocrites sometime counterfeit, and follow, as though the whole repentance did stand in such outward gesture. He teacheth then, that another manner of thing is required, that is, that they must be contrite in their hearts, that they must utterly detest, and abhorre sinnes, and being at defiance with them, return unto the Lord their God, from whom they went away before. For God hath no pleasure in the outward ceremony, but requireth a contrite, and humble heart; which he will never despise, as David doth testifie. There is therefore none other use to these outward ceremonies, but as far forth as we are stirred up by them, and doe serve to the glory of God, and to the edifying of other.

and

How repentance is not unprofitable.

Now doth he adde unto this doctrine or exhortation, certain godly reasons, which he doth ground upon the nature, and property of God, and whereby he doth teach that true repentance can never be unprofitable or unfruitfull. For as in all other things mens hearts doe quail, and faint, if they once perceive that they travaile in vain: Even so most specially in this matter, must we take heed, and beware that we suffer not our selves to be perswaded that all that we doe is but labour lost: For thereof either sudden desperation doth arise, or a licencious boldnesse to sinne, which at length bringeth unto desperation. Lest any such thing then should happen unto them, he doth certifie them of the grace, and goodnesse of God, who is alwayes most ready to receive them into favour againe, that turn speedily unto him. Which thing he doth prove with the same titles wherewith God doth describe, and set forth himself unto Moses, speaking on this manner: For he is gracious, and mercifull, slow to anger, of great kindnesse, and repenteth him of the evil, that is, such a one as is sorry for your afflictions. First, he calleth him gentle, and gracious, as he who of his own nature is more prompt, and ready to do good, then to punish. Whereunto the saying of Esaias the Prophet seemeth to pertain, where he saith, Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous his own imaginations, and return unto the Lord, and he will have pitie on him, and to our God, for he is very ready to forgive. Secondly, he doth attribute unto him mercy, or rather (according to the Hebrew word) the bowels of mercies: whereby he signified the naturall affections of parents towards their children. Which thing David doth set forth goodly, saying, As a father hath compassion on his children, so hath the Lord compassion on them that fear him, for he knoweth whereof we be made, he remembreth that we are but dust. Thirdly, he saith, that he is slow to anger, that is to say, long-suffering, and which is not lightly provoked to wrath. Fourthly, that he is of much kindnesse, for he is that bottomlesse Well of all goodnesse, who rejoyceth to do good unto us: therefore did he create, and make men, that he might have whom he should do good unto, and make partakers of his heavenly riches. Fiftly, he repenteth of the evil, that is to say, he doth call back again, and revoke the punishment which he had threatned, when he seeth men repent, turn, and amend. Whereupon we do not without a just cause detest, and abhorre the damnable opinion of them, which do most wickedly go about to perswade the simple and ignorant people, that if we chance, after we be once come to God, and grafted in his Son Je-ous Christ to fall into some horrible sin, it shall be unprofitable unto us, there is no more hope of reconciliation, or to be received again into the favour, and mercy of God. And that they may give the better colour unto their pestilent and pernicious errour, they do commonly bring in the first, and tenth Chapters of the Epistle to the Hebrews, and the second Chapter of the second Epistle of Peter, not considering that in those places the holy Apostles do not speak of the daily falls, that we (as long as we carry about this body of sin) are subject unto: but of the final falling away from Christ, and his Gospel, which is a sin against the holy Ghost, that shall never be forgiven, because that they do utterly forsake the known truth, do hate Christ and his Word, they do crucifie and mock him (but to their utter destruction) and therefore fall into desperation, and cannot repent. And that this is the true meaning of the holy Spirit of God, it appeareth by many other places of the Scriptures, which promise unto all true repentant sinners, and to them that with their whole heart do turn unto the Lord their God, free pardon and remission of their sin. For the probation hereof, we read this: O Israel (saith the holy Prophet Jeremy) if thou return, return unto me, saith the Lord, and if thou put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not be removed. Again, these are Esaias words: Let the wicked forsake his own wayes, and the unrighteous his own imaginations, and turn again unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for he is ready to forgive. And in the Prophet Osee, the godly do exhort one another after this manner, Come and let us turn again unto the Lord, for he hath smitten us, and he will heal us, he hath wounded us, and he will binde us up again. Osee 6

Note.

It is most evident and plain, that these things ought to be understood of them that were with the Lord afore, and by their sins and wickednesses were gone away from him.

For we do not turn again unto him with whom we were never before, but we come unto him. Now, unto all them that will return unfainedly unto the Lord their God, the favour and mercy of God unto forgivenesse of sins is liberally offered. Whereby it followeth necessarily, that although we do, after we be once come to God, and grafted in his Son Jesus Christ, fall into great sins (for there is no righteous man upon the earth that sinneth not, and if we say we have no sin, we deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us) yet if we rise again by Repentance, and with a full purpose of amendment of life do flee unto the mercy of God, taking sure hold thereupon, through faith in his Son Jesu Christ, there is an assured and infallible hope of pardon and remission of the same, and that we shall be received again into the favour of our Heavenly Father. It is written of David: I have found a man according to mine own heart, or, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man according to mine own heart, who will do all things that I will. This is a great commendation of David. It is also most certain, that he did stedfastly beleeve the promise that was made him touching the Messias, who should come of him touching the flesh, and that by the same faith he was justified, and grafted in our Saviour Jesu Christ to come, and yet afterwards he fell horribly, committing most detestable adultery, and damnable murther, and yet as soon as he cried Peccavi, I have sinned, unto the Lord, his sins being forgiven, he was received into favour again. Now will we come unto Peter, of whom no man can doubt but that he was grafted in our Saviour Jesus Christ, long afore his denyall. Which thing may easily be proved by the answer which he did in his Name, and in the name of his fellow Apostles, make unto our Saviour Jesu Christ, when he said unto them, Will ye also go away? Master (saith he) to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternall life, and we beleeve, and know that thou art that Christ the Son of the living God. Whereunto may be added the like confession of Peter, when Christ doth give us most most infallible testimony: Thou art blessed, Simon the son of Jonas, for neither flesh nor blood hath revealed this unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. These words are sufficient to prove, that Peter was already justified, through this his lively faith in the onely begotten Son of God, whereof he made so notable, and so solemn a confession. But did not he afterwards most cowardly deny his Master, although he had heard of him, Whosoever denieth me before men, I will deny him before my Father? Nevertheless, assoon as with weeping eyes, and with a sobbing heart he did acknowledge his offence, and with an earnest repentance did flee unto the mercy of God, taking sure hold thereupon, through faith in him whom he had so shamefully denied, his sinne was forgiven him, and for a certificate and assurance thereof, the room of his Apostleship was not denied unto him. But now mark what doth follow. After the same holy Apostle had on Whitsunday with the rest of the Disciples received the gift of the holy Ghost most abundantly, he committed no small offence in Antiochia, by bringing the consciences of the faithfull into doubt by his example, so that Paul was fain to rebuke him to his face, because that he walked not uprightly, or went not the right way in the Gospell. Shall we now say, that after this grievous offence, he was utterly excluded, and shut out from the grace, and mercy of GOD, and that this his trespasse, whereby he was a stumbling-block unto many, was unpardonable? GOD defend we should say so. But as these examples are not brought in, to the end that we should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, presuming on the mercy, and goodnesse of GOD; but to the end that if through the frailnesse of our own flesh, and the temptation of the divell, we fall into like sinnes, we should in no wise despaire of the mercy, and goodnesse of GOD: Even so must we beware, and take heed, that we doe in no wise think in our hearts, imagine, or beleeve that we are able to repent aright, or turn aright, or to turn effectually unto the Lord by our own might, and strength. For this must be verified in all men, Without me ye can doe nothing. Again, of our selves we are not able as much as to think a good thought. And in another place, It is God that worketh in us both the will, and the deed. For this cause, although Ieremy had said before, If thou return, O Israel, return unto me, saith the Lord: Yet afterwards he saith, Turn thou me, O Lord, and I shall be turned, for thou art the Lord my God. And therefore that holy Writer, and ancient Father Ambrose doth plainly affirm, that the turning of the heart unto GOD, is of GOD, as the Lord himself doth testifie by his Prophet, saying, And I will give thee a heart to know me, that I am
